Our April 2012 Mopar 10 of the Month Honors go to Brian and his Blue-Striped Automatic, M10 #346.

Brian has been torn between calling his M10 by number, 346, or name Irene. Why Irene you ask? Well that is a story in and of itself...

Brian had been pedaling around in his Dodge Ram and as he'd pass through town or head to work he'd always notice the sports cars running around. The mustangs, as with most places, were a dime a dozen and the camaro, well it is a camaro...

What always turned Brian's head was the new Dodge Challenger. You don't see them scatter like cockroaches when lights turn green (cough, mustang, cough) and unlike the camaro the Challenger has great lines and unmatched styling. He finally knew the suspense wasn't healthy and decided to genuinely pursue his new Challenger.

While skimming the net, Brian fatefully stumbled upon the Mopar 10:
